France's Fete Day in America.

St. Louis, 14.—French citizens of this city held a grani fete to-night to commemorate the national fete of France.

New York, 14.—Twenty-three French societies celebrated the French national fete to-day in Washington Park. French Consul Geeeral Busenii presided and made an address, and was followed in appropriate speeches by other French residents of the city. There were games of different kinds, and congratuating telegrams were sent to President Grevy. The Circle Francais de L'Harmione also sent a congratulatory address to President Grevy. The officers of French frigates now in this harbor entertained a distinguished cempany at dinner. At sandown a national salute was fired, and in the evening hope took p ace on board, attended by notable sasemblages.

San Francisco, 14.—This evening French societies marched to Woodward's Gardens where a bunquet is now in progress, to be followed by a display of theworks and a bali.

French citizens celebrated the anniversity of the taking of the Bastile with much spirit to-day. There was a general display of bunting all over the city. F. each and Swiss societies, military companies and citizens marched in procession through the principal stress to the Grand Opera house, which was elegantly decorated for the occasion. Ex-United States Senator Sargant delivered an oration in English. There were also addresses and a poem to French and yould and instrumental music. France's Fete Day in America
